

MESSY PIZZA MAKING PARTY

Junior COMRADES

Get ready to celebrate junior comrades, our messy pizza making parties are about to become legendary.

Kids will don chefs hats and get stuck into our signature sourdough and fresh ingredients in a delightfully messy pizza making masterclass.

There'll be party decorations, bottomless (sugar free) squash throughout, and party games played to keep the energy high.

Then once we've cooked your pizzas, get stuck into your gooey, cheesey creations.

To finish, Joes Delucci's gelato all round, of course!

A typical kids' party will last between 90 - 120 minutes depending on the number of children, and their age. £16.95 per head, price excludes grown ups food and drink, and the best thing, there's no cleaning up!
